- B. Ask the newest employee to decide
- C. Apply a different rule secretly
- D. Document the facts and seek the authorized decision-maker

100. Which choice is most consistent with professional prioritization practice when a routine line and a possible safety issue occur together and the customer has used the library before but is unsure of this process?

- A. Address the safety concern while communicating fairly with waiting customers
- B. Serve the loudest customer first
- C. Ignore the hazard until the line ends
- D. Close the desk without explanation

Practice Exam 27: Answer Key and Explanations

1. D — Correct: clarify the need and offer an authorized search or hold. Access improves when the employee identifies the need and gives a realistic route to the resource. The other choices miss the controlling issue by ending service, promising an outcome, or shifting the whole task to the customer. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through.

2. A — Correct: check the catalog and explain the available format options. Format affects discovery, access, equipment needs, and sometimes licensing conditions. The other choices miss the controlling issue by ignoring the record, making an assumption, or separating digital service from library service. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

3. C — Correct: compare call numbers and correct the placement when authorized. Shelf reading restores the sequence that makes materials findable. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using appearance, making an unplanned shift, or accepting an inaccurate location. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

4. B — Correct: follow the local damage and reporting procedure. Condition concerns require consistent handling and an objective record. The other choices miss the controlling issue by concealing the issue, making an unauthorized disposition, or assigning blame without facts. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

5. D — Correct: check the record and route the unresolved item through the local process. Maintenance depends on reconciling the physical item with the record. The other choices miss the controlling issue by substituting a different item, changing status without evidence, or overstating record accuracy. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

6. C — Correct: apply the library policy and refer the disposition decision when required. Weeding uses policy, condition, currency, use, and community context rather than one factor alone. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using age as the only rule, refusing review, or transferring an official decision to a customer. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through.

7. A — Correct: follow the approved shifting plan and preserve sequence information. Shifting is a controlled sequence change that must preserve discoverability. The other choices miss the controlling issue by treating space as the only concern, altering classification, or omitting the needed record update. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

8. B — Correct: verify the location and explain the next search or request step. Location questions require record checking and a proportionate response. The other choices miss the controlling issue by sending the customer without information, editing a record prematurely, or making an unsupported accusation. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

9. C — Correct: clarify the need and offer an authorized search or hold. Access improves when the employee identifies the need and gives a realistic route to the resource. The other choices miss the controlling issue by ending service, promising an outcome, or shifting the whole task to the customer. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through.

10. B — Correct: check the catalog and explain the available format options. Format affects discovery, access, equipment needs, and sometimes licensing conditions. The other choices miss the controlling issue by ignoring the record, making an assumption, or separating digital service from library service. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

11. A — Correct: compare call numbers and correct the placement when authorized. Shelf reading restores the sequence that makes materials findable. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using appearance, making an unplanned shift, or accepting an inaccurate location. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

12. D — Correct: follow the local damage and reporting procedure. Condition concerns require consistent handling and an objective record. The other choices miss the controlling issue by concealing the issue, making an unauthorized disposition, or assigning blame without facts. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

13. A — Correct: check the record and route the unresolved item through the local process. Maintenance depends on reconciling the physical item with the record. The other choices miss the controlling issue by substituting a different item, changing status without evidence, or overstating record accuracy. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

14. C — Correct: apply the library policy and refer the disposition decision when required. Weeding uses policy, condition, currency, use, and community context rather than one factor alone. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using age as the only rule, refusing review, or transferring an official decision to a customer. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through.

15. D — Correct: follow the approved shifting plan and preserve sequence information. Shifting is a controlled sequence change that must preserve discoverability. The other choices miss the controlling issue by treating space as the only concern, altering classification, or omitting the needed record update. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

16. B — Correct: verify identity before disclosing protected account details. Identity checks protect confidential records and prevent disclosure by convenience. The other choices miss the controlling issue by public disclosure, informal permission, or asking an unrelated customer to authenticate someone. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

17. D — Correct: pause and resolve the discrepancy through the approved procedure. A checkout record should be accurate before the item leaves the library. The other choices miss the controlling issue by creating a false transaction, substituting an identifier, or making a broad unsupported claim. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

18. C — Correct: preserve the item details and route the record correction through procedure. Return problems can affect availability, fees, and the customer record. The other choices miss the controlling issue by hiding the discrepancy, imposing an unsupported charge, or deleting a record without a controlled correction. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through.

19. B — Correct: check eligibility and explain the available renewal route. Renewal decisions depend on item status, holds, policy, and system information. The other choices miss the controlling issue by making a universal promise, refusing without review, or bypassing the authorized transaction. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

20. A — Correct: check the hold status and explain the next realistic step. Hold service depends on status, queue order, location, and notification procedures. The other choices miss the controlling issue by promising timing, altering the request without authority, or giving no usable information. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

21. D — Correct: review the record and apply the documented adjustment or referral process. A charge dispute needs facts, consistent policy, and authorized action. The other choices miss the controlling issue by creating an exception, refusing to review evidence, or delaying a service issue without reason. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through.

22. A — Correct: explain the applicable process and document the report accurately. Lost-item handling affects inventory, account status, privacy, and replacement rules. The other choices miss the controlling issue by creating a false return, imposing an unrelated replacement, or exposing account information. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

23. C — Correct: verify the account and update only the authorized fields. Accurate contact information supports notices while still requiring identity awareness. The other choices miss the controlling issue by overwriting data, using unauthorized information, or treating one error as a permanent barrier. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

24. B — Correct: verify identity before disclosing protected account details. Identity checks protect confidential records and prevent disclosure by convenience. The other choices miss the controlling issue by public disclosure, informal permission, or asking an unrelated customer to authenticate someone.

Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

25. A — Correct: pause and resolve the discrepancy through the approved procedure. A checkout record should be accurate before the item leaves the library. The other choices miss the controlling issue by creating a false transaction, substituting an identifier, or making a broad unsupported claim. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

26. D — Correct: preserve the item details and route the record correction through procedure. Return problems can affect availability, fees, and the customer record. The other choices miss the controlling issue by hiding the discrepancy, imposing an unsupported charge, or deleting a record without a controlled correction. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through.

27. C — Correct: check eligibility and explain the available renewal route. Renewal decisions depend on item status, holds, policy, and system information. The other choices miss the controlling issue by making a universal promise, refusing without review, or bypassing the authorized transaction. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

28. B — Correct: check the hold status and explain the next realistic step. Hold service depends on status, queue order, location, and notification procedures. The other choices miss the controlling issue by promising timing, altering the request without authority, or giving no usable information. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

29. D — Correct: review the record and apply the documented adjustment or referral process. A charge dispute needs facts, consistent policy, and authorized action. The other choices miss the controlling issue by creating an exception, refusing to review evidence, or delaying a service issue without reason. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through.

30. A — Correct: explain the applicable process and document the report accurately. Lost-item handling affects inventory, account status, privacy, and replacement rules. The other choices miss the controlling issue by creating a false return, imposing an unrelated replacement, or exposing account information. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

31. B — Correct: explain that the record describes and helps locate a resource. A bibliographic record supports discovery and management but does not guarantee current availability. The other choices miss the controlling issue by confusing description with availability, a service log, or the resource itself. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

32. C — Correct: use the available access points and explain the search result. Access points provide multiple authorized routes to a record. The other choices miss the controlling issue by declaring the record invalid, deleting data, or refusing to refine the search. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

33. C — Correct: try a controlled subject term or a more specific search. Controlled terms improve consistency and reduce noise in topical searching. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using randomness, abandoning the search, or substituting personal judgment for catalog language. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

34. B — Correct: compare the classification numbers and place each according to the sequence. Classification organizes materials by subject and specificity. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using physical appearance, collapsing distinctions, or substituting arrival order for the system. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

35. D — Correct: compare the decimal digits from left to right. Decimal filing depends on place value rather than string length. The other choices miss the controlling issue by treating decimals as whole numbers, ignoring information, or using digit count as the rule. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

36. A — Correct: apply the local filing rule consistently one character at a time. Alphabetical filing requires a consistent comparison method. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using appearance, length, or personal familiarity instead of the adopted sequence. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

37. D — Correct: stop the transaction and report or correct the mismatch through procedure. Identifiers connect the physical item to the correct record. The other choices miss the controlling issue by creating a new identifier without control, borrowing another item number, or relying only on title appearance. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through.

38. A — Correct: use the authorized form and follow the cataloging workflow. Authority control keeps access points consistent while supporting discovery. The other choices miss the controlling issue by creating uncontrolled variants, deleting useful relationships, or treating first appearance as authority. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

39. B — Correct: explain that the record describes and helps locate a resource. A bibliographic record supports discovery and management but does not guarantee current availability. The other choices miss the controlling issue by confusing description with availability, a service log, or the resource itself.

Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

40. C — Correct: use the available access points and explain the search result. Access points provide multiple authorized routes to a record. The other choices miss the controlling issue by declaring the record invalid, deleting data, or refusing to refine the search. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

41. C — Correct: try a controlled subject term or a more specific search. Controlled terms improve consistency and reduce noise in topical searching. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using randomness, abandoning the search, or substituting personal judgment for catalog language. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

42. D — Correct: compare the classification numbers and place each according to the sequence. Classification organizes materials by subject and specificity. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using physical appearance, collapsing distinctions, or substituting arrival order for the system. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

43. A — Correct: compare the decimal digits from left to right. Decimal filing depends on place value rather than string length. The other choices miss the controlling issue by treating decimals as whole numbers, ignoring information, or using digit count as the rule. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

44. B — Correct: apply the local filing rule consistently one character at a time. Alphabetical filing requires a consistent comparison method. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using appearance, length, or personal familiarity instead of the adopted sequence. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

45. B — Correct: stop the transaction and report or correct the mismatch through procedure. Identifiers connect the physical item to the correct record. The other choices miss the controlling issue by creating a new identifier without control, borrowing another item number, or relying only on title appearance. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through.

46. C — Correct: ask a focused clarifying question before searching. Clarification identifies the real information need and prevents a mismatched referral. The other choices miss the controlling issue by substituting the employee's interest, accepting the first result, or abandoning the customer. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

47. A — Correct: begin with an open question and narrow the request as needed. Open questions allow the customer to state purpose and context in their own words. The other choices miss the controlling issue by restricting the answer too early, collecting unnecessary information, or talking before understanding. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through.

48. D — Correct: compare authority, currency, purpose, and supporting evidence. Evaluation requires more than speed or presentation. The other choices miss the controlling issue by judging by headline, search position, or unsupported equivalence. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching. It is stronger than an answer that merely sounds helpful.

49. A — Correct: explain the referral and provide the best available next step. A good referral preserves service continuity without overstating expertise. The other choices miss the controlling issue by giving an incomplete handoff, impersonating expertise, or abandoning the customer. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

50. B — Correct: ask about preferences and purpose before suggesting titles. Reader advisory is strongest when based on the customer's interests and goals. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using popularity alone, stereotyping, or denying a routine service. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

51. D — Correct: ask a focused clarifying question before searching. Clarification identifies the real information need and prevents a mismatched referral. The other choices miss the controlling issue by substituting the employee's interest, accepting the first result, or abandoning the customer. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

52. C — Correct: begin with an open question and narrow the request as needed. Open questions allow the customer to state purpose and context in their own words. The other choices miss the controlling issue by restricting the answer too early, collecting unnecessary information, or talking before understanding. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through.

53. C — Correct: compare authority, currency, purpose, and supporting evidence. Evaluation requires more than speed or presentation. The other choices miss the controlling issue by judging by headline, search position, or unsupported equivalence. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching. It is stronger than an answer that merely sounds helpful.

54. A — Correct: explain the referral and provide the best available next step. A good referral preserves service continuity without overstating expertise. The other choices miss the controlling issue by giving an incomplete handoff, impersonating expertise, or abandoning the customer. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

55. B — Correct: ask about preferences and purpose before suggesting titles. Reader advisory is strongest when based on the customer's interests and goals. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using popularity alone, stereotyping, or denying a routine service. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

56. D — Correct: confirm the record and follow the approved recovery or escalation step. System recovery starts with defining the error and protecting the record. The other choices miss the controlling issue by repeating an unknown action, changing unrelated data, or ignoring a record problem. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

57. A — Correct: check the access requirement and provide approved first-line help. Public workstation help must protect security while addressing the access problem. The other choices miss the controlling issue by sharing credentials, bypassing controls, or promising a resource the employee cannot control. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

58. C — Correct: explain the approved save location and privacy considerations. File handling must balance usability with privacy and local workstation rules. The other choices miss the controlling issue by accessing private content, transferring it without permission, or leaving it exposed. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

59. B — Correct: check access status and route the technical problem appropriately. Licensed resources may have access conditions and technical support paths. The other choices miss the controlling issue by copying protected content, making a broad promise, or bypassing controls. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

60. D — Correct: use the approved privacy procedure and avoid viewing unnecessary content. Privacy protection requires limiting exposure and using the designated cleanup step. The other choices miss the controlling issue by curiosity, unnecessary disclosure, or leaving a live account available. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

61. D — Correct: confirm the record and follow the approved recovery or escalation step. System recovery starts with defining the error and protecting the record. The other choices miss the controlling issue by repeating an unknown action, changing unrelated data, or ignoring a record problem. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

62. C — Correct: check the access requirement and provide approved first-line help. Public workstation help must protect security while addressing the access problem. The other choices miss the controlling issue by sharing credentials, bypassing controls, or promising a resource the employee cannot control. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

63. A — Correct: explain the approved save location and privacy considerations. File handling must balance usability with privacy and local workstation rules. The other choices miss the controlling issue by accessing private content, transferring it without permission, or leaving it exposed. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

64. B — Correct: check access status and route the technical problem appropriately. Licensed resources may have access conditions and technical support paths. The other choices miss the controlling issue by copying protected content, making a broad promise, or bypassing controls. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

65. A — Correct: use the approved privacy procedure and avoid viewing unnecessary content. Privacy protection requires limiting exposure and using the designated cleanup step. The other choices miss the controlling issue by curiosity, unnecessary disclosure, or leaving a live account available. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

66. D — Correct: listen, summarize the need, and confirm the next step. Listening separates the service need from the emotion and reduces misunderstanding. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using policy as a barrier, making promises, or ending without a shared understanding. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

67. B — Correct: explain the term in clear everyday language. Plain language improves access and confirms understanding. The other choices miss the controlling issue by repeating jargon, blaming the customer, or increasing complexity. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching. It is stronger than an answer that merely sounds helpful.

68. C — Correct: remain calm, set respectful limits, and address the immediate need. Calm, bounded communication protects safety and keeps the interaction productive. The other choices miss the controlling issue by escalating emotion, threatening without basis, or turning service into an argument. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

69. C — Correct: apply the same rule and explain the queue or priority process. Fairness requires consistent standards and transparent process. The other choices miss the controlling issue by rewarding force, familiarity, or secret exceptions. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching. It is stronger than an answer that merely sounds helpful.

70. A — Correct: ask what assistance is needed and offer an approved alternative. Respectful access begins with the customer and uses available procedures. The other choices miss the controlling issue by making assumptions, excluding the customer from communication, or treating access as their burden. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

71. D — Correct: listen, document the relevant facts, and explain the complaint route. Complaint handling requires respect, accurate routing, and authority boundaries. The other choices miss the controlling issue by erasing feedback, promising an outcome, or dismissing the concern. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

72. B — Correct: provide neutral service and follow the established access policy. Professional neutrality separates personal views from public service. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using personal preference to restrict access or demanding justification. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

73. B — Correct: decline the disclosure and protect the record. Borrowing information can reveal private interests and requires authorized disclosure. The other choices miss the controlling issue by treating concern as permission, confirming partial details, or shifting privacy to the customer. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

74. D — Correct: listen, summarize the need, and confirm the next step. Listening separates the service need from the emotion and reduces misunderstanding. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using policy as a barrier, making promises, or ending without a shared understanding. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

75. A — Correct: explain the term in clear everyday language. Plain language improves access and confirms understanding. The other choices miss the controlling issue by repeating jargon, blaming the customer, or increasing complexity. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching. It is stronger than an answer that merely sounds helpful.

76. C — Correct: remain calm, set respectful limits, and address the immediate need. Calm, bounded communication protects safety and keeps the interaction productive. The other choices miss the controlling issue by escalating emotion, threatening without basis, or turning service into an argument. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

77. A — Correct: apply the same rule and explain the queue or priority process. Fairness requires consistent standards and transparent process. The other choices miss the controlling issue by rewarding force, familiarity, or secret exceptions. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching. It is stronger than an answer that merely sounds helpful.

78. D — Correct: ask what assistance is needed and offer an approved alternative. Respectful access begins with the customer and uses available procedures. The other choices miss the controlling issue by making assumptions, excluding the customer from communication, or treating access as their burden. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

79. C — Correct: listen, document the relevant facts, and explain the complaint route. Complaint handling requires respect, accurate routing, and authority boundaries. The other choices miss the controlling issue by erasing feedback, promising an outcome, or dismissing the concern. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

80. B — Correct: provide neutral service and follow the established access policy. Professional neutrality separates personal views from public service. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using personal preference to restrict access or demanding justification. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

81. C — Correct: follow the stated sequence and verify the final condition. Ordered instructions reduce missed conditions and inconsistent results. The other choices miss the controlling issue by skipping steps, choosing convenience over sequence, or relying on memory when the procedure is available. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

82. D — Correct: use the surrounding sentence and task to determine meaning. Context identifies the meaning that fits the actual workplace use. The other choices miss the controlling issue by choosing by familiarity, length, or isolated wording. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

83. B — Correct: compare the records field by field. Field-by-field comparison catches small errors that affect service. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using partial inspection, equating similar names, or replacing evidence with memory. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

84. A — Correct: identify the base, rate, and authorized rule before explaining. Clear calculation depends on the correct base and governing procedure. The other choices miss the controlling issue by guessing from the result, changing the rule, or explaining without verification. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

85. A — Correct: compare the stated times and prioritize according to procedure. Time accuracy supports reliable notices, queues, and handoffs. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using subjective preference, ignoring the deadline, or editing schedules without authority. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

86. D — Correct: follow the stated sequence and verify the final condition. Ordered instructions reduce missed conditions and inconsistent results. The other choices miss the controlling issue by skipping steps, choosing convenience over sequence, or relying on memory when the procedure is available. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

87. B — Correct: use the surrounding sentence and task to determine meaning. Context identifies the meaning that fits the actual workplace use. The other choices miss the controlling issue by choosing by familiarity, length, or isolated wording. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

88. C — Correct: compare the records field by field. Field-by-field comparison catches small errors that affect service. The other choices miss the controlling issue by using partial inspection, equating similar names, or replacing evidence with memory. Library Assistant questions reward procedure, privacy, safety, fairness, and follow-through. This choice resolves the need without overreaching.

89. C — Correct: identify the base, rate, and authorized rule before explaining. Clear calculation depends on the correct base and governing procedure. The other choices miss the controlling issue by guessing from the result, changing the rule, or explaining without verification.
