PRACTICE EXAM 24: POLICE OFFICER SIMULATION (100 QUESTIONS)

This independent practice simulation contains 100 questions for extended training. The current NYPD hiring FAQ describes a 55-question civil-service exam with two hours to complete it, and the current DCAS notice states that a score of at least 70% is required to pass. For a realistic challenge, complete this expanded practice set under a strict time limit, then review every explanation.

D. P-L-S-N

26. A response sequence requires A before B, B before C, and C before D. Which order follows all three requirements?

A. B-A-C-D

B. A-C-B-D

C. A-B-C-D

D. D-C-B-A

27. A closing routine requires R before S, S before T, and V after T. Which sequence follows the routine?

A. S-R-T-V
B. R-S-T-V
C. R-T-S-V
D. V-R-S-T

28. A four-step record process follows these rules: photograph P before label L; label L before seal S; and notify N after sealing. Which sequence is valid?

A. P-L-S-N
B. L-P-S-N
C. P-S-L-N
D. N-P-L-S

29. A response sequence requires A before B, B before C, and C before D. Which order follows all three requirements?

A. A-B-C-D
B. B-A-C-D
C. A-C-B-D
D. D-C-B-A

30. A closing routine requires R before S, S before T, and V after T. Which sequence follows the routine?

A. S-R-T-V
B. R-T-S-V
C. V-R-S-T
D. R-S-T-V

31. A four-step record process follows these rules: photograph P before label L; label L before seal S; and notify N after sealing. Which sequence is valid?

A. L-P-S-N
B. P-L-S-N
C. P-S-L-N
D. N-P-L-S

32. A response sequence requires A before B, B before C, and C before D. Which order follows all three requirements?

A. B-A-C-D
B. A-C-B-D
C. A-B-C-D
D. D-C-B-A

33. A closing routine requires R before S, S before T, and V after T. Which sequence follows the routine?

A. R-S-T-V
B. S-R-T-V
C. R-T-S-V
D. V-R-S-T

34. A four-step record process follows these rules: photograph P before label L; label L before seal S; and notify N after sealing. Which sequence is valid?

A. L-P-S-N
B. P-L-S-N
C. P-S-L-N
D. N-P-L-S

35. A response sequence requires A before B, B before C, and C before D. Which order follows all three requirements?

A. B-A-C-D
B. A-C-B-D
C. A-B-C-D
D. D-C-B-A

36. A closing routine requires R before S, S before T, and V after T. Which sequence follows the routine?

A. S-R-T-V
B. R-T-S-V
C. V-R-S-T
D. R-S-T-V

37. Review this record: Officer Nolan logged a yellow flashlight with tag I-57 in Locker 3. Which item was logged?

100. Which sentence has the clearest grammatical structure?

A. The forms was completed before the equipment returned.
B. The forms were completed before the equipment was returned.
C. Completed the forms before the equipment was returned.
D. The forms, they completed before returning equipment.

Practice Exam 24: Answer Key and Explanations

1. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For deductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

2. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For deductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

3. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For deductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

4. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For deductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

5. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For deductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

6. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For deductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

7. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For deductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

8. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For deductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

9. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For deductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

10. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For deductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

11. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For deductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

12. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For deductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

13. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For inductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

14. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For inductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

15. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For inductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

16. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For inductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

17. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For inductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

18. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For inductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

19. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For inductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

20. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For inductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

21. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For inductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

22. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For inductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

23. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For inductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

24. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For inductive reasoning, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

25. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For information ordering, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

26. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For information ordering, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

27. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For information ordering, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

28. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For information ordering, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

29. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For information ordering, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

30. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For information ordering, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

31. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For information ordering, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

32. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For information ordering, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

33. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For information ordering, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

34. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For information ordering, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

35. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For information ordering, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

36. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For information ordering, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

37. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For detail recall, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

38. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For detail recall, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

39. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For detail recall, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

40. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For detail recall, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

41. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For detail recall, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

42. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For detail recall, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

43. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For detail recall, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

44. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For detail recall, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

45. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For detail recall, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

46. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For detail recall, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

47. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For detail recall, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

48. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For problem sensitivity, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

49. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For problem sensitivity, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

50. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For problem sensitivity, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

51. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For problem sensitivity, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

52. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For problem sensitivity, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

53. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For problem sensitivity, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

54. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For problem sensitivity, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

55. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For problem sensitivity, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

56. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For problem sensitivity, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

57. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For problem sensitivity, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

58. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For problem sensitivity, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

59. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For spatial orientation, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

60. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For spatial orientation, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

61. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For spatial orientation, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

62. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For spatial orientation, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

63. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For spatial orientation, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

64. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For spatial orientation, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

65. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For spatial orientation, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

66. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For spatial orientation, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

67. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For spatial orientation, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

68. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For spatial orientation, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

69. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For spatial orientation, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

70. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For visualization, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

71. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For visualization, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

72. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For visualization, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

73. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For visualization, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

74. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For visualization, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

75. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For visualization, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

76. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For visualization, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

77. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For visualization, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

78. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For visualization, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

79. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For visualization, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

80. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written comprehension, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

81. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written comprehension, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

82. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written comprehension, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

83. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written comprehension, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

84. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written comprehension, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

85. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written comprehension, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

86. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written comprehension, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

87. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written comprehension, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

88. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written comprehension, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

89. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written comprehension, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

90. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written comprehension, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

91. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written expression, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

92. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written expression, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

93. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written expression, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

94. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written expression, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

95. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written expression, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

96. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written expression, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

97. C — The correct choice is C. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written expression, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

98. D — The correct choice is D. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written expression, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

99. A — The correct choice is A. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written expression, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.

100. B — The correct choice is B. The prompt's controlling detail is the stated condition. It supports this answer because every required relationship remains intact. The other choices alter, omit, or reverse one detail. For written expression, mark the facts, apply the rule without adding assumptions, and compare each option with the complete record before deciding.
